

In July and August 2012, on behalf of AHRAB, the State Library sent out checks totaling $20,000 to re-grant awardees that included the following institutions:

- The Arizona Jewish Historical Society (Maricopa County), $1,000 to process photographs and documents from the Markow Photography Collection, the Arizona Jewish Theater Company and the records of the Beth El Congregation, Phoenix.
- The Bisbee Mining and Historical Museum (Cochise County), $1,800 to purchase proper shelving and archival boxes and folders to rehouse 122 linear feet of archival collections.
- The Clerk of the Yavapai County Superior Court, $747 to employ a conservator to restore territorial court record books.
- The Mesa Historical Museum, $2,000 to fund a contract collections assistant to work with the photo collections and to purchase archival supplies to re-house and properly care for their photographic collections.
- The Mohave County Recorder, $1,047 to purchase three data-loggers to monitor and analyze the long-term environmental factors influencing the deterioration of their permanent historical records.
- The Oracle Historical Society $1,000 to purchase two locking metal storage/shelving units to house, protect and preserve the historical documents and photographs in their collections.
- The Sedona Historical Society, $1,200 to digitize and catalog approximately 20% of the Elizabeth Rigby Photograph Collection.
- The Sharlot Hall Museum Library and Archives Research Center (Yavapai County), $2,868 to purchase storage, re-housing and preservation supplies for the Prescott Daily Courier Newspaper Negative Collection.
- The Arizona Archives Alliance, $2,274 for organizing and facilitating a 1.5 day symposium on issues pertinent to Native American archival materials and aimed at forging relationships between native and non-Native archivists.
- The Billie Jane Baguley Library and Archives The Heard Museum, $990 to purchase a UV and Light Minitor/Logger to better monitor and stabilize the environment where archival materials are stored and displayed.
- The Peoria Arizona Historical Society, $400 to digitize the entire set of "Old Paths" newspapers published by Ora Weed and to make them accessible.
- The Cave Creek Museum, $1,820 to purchase the PastPerfect 5.0 CD Training Series and provide a small stipend for a project coordinator to supervise and coordinate training of staff and current and new-to-archives-management volunteers.
- The Douglas Historical Society, $1,354 to purchase archival supplies to house and preserve historical documents and photographs in their collections
- The Powell Museum, $1,500 to purchase archival supplies for housing and preserving the Stan Jones Collection.